B. Y. U. Band Scores Huge Success Here

Last Sunday music lovers by the score congregated in the new Recreation Hall to hear a concert played by one of the outstanding musical aggregations in the west, The B. Y. U. Concert Band from Provo, Utah, stopped here to present a most interesting program—just one of the 19 the band has or will play from November 23 to April 14. Following a very heavy schedule the band presented the program here at 2 pm and then went on to Lethbridge to play in the evening.

The opening prayer was offered by Patriarch Ira C. Fletcher after which President L. L. Palmer introduced Marvin Pullan, who, as business manager of the Board and as the BYU representative, made a few remarks concerning the University and the B. Y. U. and introduced Ralph G. Laycock, a well known son of the South, who is the conductor of the Concert Band.

After "O Canada" Mrs. Laycock led the band through a wide variety of selections ranging from popular through light classic arrangements. The first part of the program was made of the more serious pieces such as "Psyche and Eros" by Franck-Harding; "Cortège and Scherzo" by Moussorgsky-Beyer; "Italian In Algiers" by Rossini-Caillie; Impassario by Mozart-Burns and the "Hansel and Gretel Overture" sometimes called the "Children Pray" by Humperdink-Caillie.

In the popular and modern class Mr. Laycock dedicated the selection "All The Things You Are" to his mother, Mrs. Fern Laycock, who was in the audience.

Johnny Mercer's "Old Black Magic" was beautifully played and thrills ran through every ex-actor when the band played the "R. C. A. F. March Past". The grande finale was to have been "Jericho", a rhapsody for band by Morton Gould and what a rendition the Band played of it! The walls of the Recreation Hall could, with a little imagination, be felt to shake and shudder under the impact of such beating of drums and cymbals and the sharp blaring of the horns. Mr. Laycock said that in as much as the Hall was not yet completed the full treatment of the thousands of marching feet that literally brought down the walls of the city were a good thing to do without.

The finale was so spectacular that the more than 1000 people present called for three encores—the beautiful "Favanne" by Gould; the immortal Sousa march "Stars and Stripes Forever" and the fiery stadium march "Thunder Song" by Finlayson. "God Save the Queen" brought the concert to a close and Kay Redd offered the closing prayer.

One very interesting sidelight of the concert, to many, was the introduction and display of the various unusual musical instruments in the band.

The members of the Band and those travelling with it were taken to the homes of the members of the Wards for dinner before the Concert and a very interesting and enjoyable time was had by all.

Barker Selman and Howard Rasmussen and their Priests class enjoyed a theatre party and dinner the other evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Finch were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Michael Tenbrack of Lethbridge on Sunday when a delicious dinner and visiting were enjoyed. The Tenbracks, who are from Holland, presented Mrs. Finch with a pair of wooden shoes of the type worn in their home country.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Duncombe motored to Carway on Sunday to visit her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Bechtel.

A lesson on proper breathing was given by Mrs. Doris Court on Thursday when the Ladies Music Club were guests at the home of Marie Strong with Mrs. Helen Sabey as co-hostess. The remainder of the time was spent practicing songs to be sung at the forthcoming music festival in Lethbridge.

Parcels were handed in for the Hospital Auxiliary Grab Bag.

The Lindy Smith entertained a few friends Friday evening in honor of Mrs. Wilhard Paxman on her birthday. The group had a lot of fun playing Bingo and opening prizes after which a very lovely lunch was served to the Jack McMahan, Jim McMahan, Willard Paxmans, Alan Jensens and Ralph Walkers.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hicken became the happy parents of a daughter, born April 6th at the local hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Jensen were hosts to their Study Class recently at which Jeanine presented the interesting lesson.

The Second Ward Elders met last week to enjoy an evening of fun that commenced with a Barbershop Quartet (if you pulled aside the mustaches you would recognize Joe Strong, Herb Bishop, Deb Oler and Shirley King singing a medley of old favorites; Tom King, Duane Howard and Tim Court entertained with their instrumental numbers after which "Jake" (alias Arledge Hill) made an appearance and gave them the latest news heard around town. On the Road To Mandalay was rendered by Velma Bigelow after which Sir Basil, also known as Mrs. Bigelow, dashing in a swallow-tail coat, derby brown trousers, and with a mustache tickling his huge nose, sang "I Wear Red Feather and a Hula Hula Skirt".

The remainder of the evening was spent playing Pit and Bingo with Bob Brandley and Leonard Watson in charge of the games. The cooks, Raymond Jensen, Brent Jensen, Bill Bowden and Allen Haggie kept the players well supplied with hamburgers, hot dogs and punch. For those who wished to dance Joe Strong called the dances to records.

When the "blackout" interrupted the Teachers' party at Mutual the other evening, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Stone offered the hospitality of their home and coal oil lamp so that they could continue with their stunts and hamburger fry.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Haggie's twin daughters, Beverly and Valerie, celebrated their sixth birthday with a party last week.

Tom Witbeck recently returned from an interesting trip to Las Vegas and other points in Arizona. While in Las Vegas he visited his brother Pete who coach of a basketball team made up of BYU and U of U Alumni who were playing in a conference in that city. Incidentally—his team won!

Nature Exhibit At The Library

A very extensive and interesting display of butterflies and eggs are now on exhibit at the Town Library. A great deal of interest is being shown by youngsters and oldsters alike in this collection owned by Steve Shigematsu.

Mrs. Irene Redd and Mrs. Bliss Roberts were joint hostesses when the Ladies Literary met at the home of Mrs. Joe Strong recently. Dot Witbeck reviewed the book "The Unknown Country"—Canada—by Bruce Hutchinson, to an interested group of ladies, after which a very tasty lunch was served.

Special guests were Anne Turner and Norma Meldrum.

Police Court

The town generally has been living on the right side of the law for the past month which results in a rather light Police Report—except for traffic violations. During the period from March 8 to April 12 only one Stock By-Law was broken and Hugh Court paid a $5 fine and $4.50 costs when he was found guilty of allowing stock to run at large. Tom King and Duane Howard were each fined $10 and $4.50 costs for illegal possession of liquor. Bob Donkhn of Lethbridge was fined $5 and $4.50 costs for the same offence.

Traffic violations in Town brought a total of $43 in fine, as 3 speeding, 3 turning, 5 stop and 6 parking charges were laid. Incidentally it costs $5 and costs for speeding and $2 and costs for each of the other offences.

The Friday Nite Club Club enjoyed a social evening of Rook last week at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Williams. The prize for High Score was won by Mrs. Edna Gilchrist while Mrs. Irene Bowden took home the consolation, but not until after the delicious was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Holt are thrilled to have their daughter Sharon home with them again. Sharon, who remained in Vancouver when her parents moved back to Raymond, plans to holiday with her folks a short while before looking for employment here.

Mrs. Harry Fairbanks has returned home after visiting her children in Edmonton as well as her new Grandson Brent Lee who was born late in March. Mrs. Fairbanks witnessed an unusual sight while there. She was able to accompany her son Harold on his inspection trip to the burning oil well at legal and in as much as he was on official business was able to get up as close as the heat and flame would permit. It was an awe-inspiring sight.

Mrs. Mary Rasmussen was hostess to Miladi's Library Club last week when Mrs. Anne Turner gave an interesting review of the book, "That Prince of Ur" by L. Whitstee and L. Gates. This is the story of Abraham and Sarah.

Special guest this evening were Mesdames Alma Mendenhall, Vivian King, Donna Meldrum, Anne Turner, Ellen Winkler and Delecta Sommerfeldt.

Good Crowd Attend Cancer Films

A good turnout at the Cancer Films on Friday, April 9, indicated the interest taken in the Cancer Crusade here.

The very enjoyable program consisted of the films; several selections by the Glee-Elite Club, directed by Beth Walker and accompanied by Conie Grant; talks by Mr. Fryett, who is President of the Lethbridge Cancer Society, and Mr. Caudwell, who is Campaign Manager for the Cancer Drive in Lethbridge and district.

Mrs. Drope, Secretary and Welfare Nurse, for the Society, answered questions concerning cancer and explained the method to be followed for both examination and treatment.

After the program a light lunch was served.

The local Cancer Committee would like to express thanks to those who assisted with the program, especially Athol Cooper who provided and operated the projector.

A Canvass for funds to fight Cancer will begin the very near future in this area.

CARD OF THANKS

The Building Committee of the Raymond United Church wish to sincerely thank Bishops Snow and Hicken and all members of the L. D. S. Church for their generosity in turning over to our Building Fund all proceeds received from the "Easter Musicals."

Ray Attwood, Chairman

Gene Garner returned home last Thursday after completing her mission in the Central Atlantic States. She attended Conference and then accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Bob Salmon to Raymond.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Card phoned from Calgary early in the week where they were visiting the Booth Cards briefly before completing their trip home. They have been holidaying in Portland and Vancouver the past number of weeks.

NOTICE

Lethbridge Choir Presents Easter Program In Stake House

From the pleasing expression on the faces of Arthur K. Putland's 50 Southminster United Church singers of Lethbridge at the Stake Chapel here Monday night, they could have been inspired by word of Hans Christian Anderson "To be of use in the only way to be happy."

It is a very desirable achievement when singers enjoy giving of their talents to promote the cultural, as this fine choir did. It was a two-fold achievement in providing a program of sacred music to an appreciative audience and giving the entire proceeds to a local church-building program.

One could add appropriate lines by an anonymous writer, "The only religion that will do anything toward enriching your life is the religion which inspires you to do something toward enriching the life of others." Mr. Putland's singers did just that.

The audience which nearly filled the chapel was thrilled by the inspiring music of the choir with Mr. Putland admirably performing in a dual capacity as conductor and organist.

From the dramatic chorales in some of the more difficult elections to the floating tunes of others and selections from Matthew's Canonata "Gethsemane to Golgotha" there was variety that was pleasing and well timed this Easter season.

In the rendition of Handel's beautiful aria "He Was Despaired" Mary Thompson, contralto, excelled. The skill of the accompanist, whose excellent choice of registration gave the aria a most desirable "atmosphere." Listeners enjoyed greatly the total beauty of Mrs. Thompson's voice, especially in the often repeated words of the aria "A man of sorrows."

The strong soprano section of the choir was capable of providing balance for double the number of bass singers but the skill of the accompanist with his left hand and pedals at the console made up the difference.

Soloists Keith Downey and Allan Walker, tenor and baritone respectively, sustained their roles admirably in the Canonata number while the two trumpeters, Ruth Anderson and Ken Lancaster, contributed color and brilliance to the closing chorals by the choir and organ.

Proceeds of the concert went to the local United Church building fund, with Bishop J. O. Hicken on behalf of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, announcing that their share of the proceeds would all be donated to the United Church.

Written for the Lethbridge Herald by W. C. Stone and used by permission.

While Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Pilling were in town on Tuesday they paid a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Rodeback Mrs. Pilling and Mrs. Rodeback are sisters. After an enjoyable stay here the Pillings proceeded on to Shelby to attend the wedding reception of their grandson, Bobby Parsell.

Corn Popper Won By Mrs. Irene Bowden

At the Hobby Show held here last fall the Neighborhood Club won a pop corn popper and because it was not a thing easily divided they have kept it on hand until recently when they donated it to the Canadian Culture Class. At a recent meeting of the Camera Club, at the Library, a membership draw was made for the popper with Mrs. Irene Bowden being the lucky winner.

Mrs. Margaret Bridge and Mrs. Mae Selman were hosts to the Fourth Ward Primary Officers Meeting on Tuesday when they met for their instructions and lesson.

When the Child Psychology Club met at the home of Mrs. Mary Stone this week, Mrs. Nonavee Jones gave the lesson on "Causes of a Nervous Breakdown." A lovely lunch was served by members and Mrs. Anne Turner, was a special guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Stone entertained a few friends Sunday evening after Church when visiting was enjoyed by Mrs. Beth Galbraith, Mrs. Ella Galbraith Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bridge, Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Gibb and Bishop and Mrs. Snow.

Master Sergeant Duane Selk of the United States Army who is stationed at Fort Lewis, Washington, spent a week in town visiting his father Frank Selk and Mrs. Selk. He returned to his base on Saturday.

Captain Frank Garrett of St. Catharines, Ontario recently spent a couple of weeks in town visiting nieces and nephews he had never met before. He was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Garrett and Mr. and Mrs. John Bakken.

W. I. News

The regular meeting of the Raymond W. I. was held at the Legion Hall, on April 9th.

With President Mrs. F. Hall presiding, the meeting opened with members singing. "My Old Kentucky Home, Followed by "Praise Songs" led by Mrs. L. Adams, and Creed led by Mrs. W. Paris.

Roll call was answered with "What I was doing when I was twenty," and also a donation for the Hospital Auxiliary sale on April 24th.

Mrs. Hall reported that two quilts had been completed by members in the past month.

The Secretary, Mrs. I. McBride, read a letter from Mrs. J. M. Hughson, our County, Fair Convener, on the matter of changing the fair date to August 14, instead of June, and also noted changes in the fair list regarding flowers, etc.

An interesting report was given by Mrs. D. Faxman, who was delegate to the District Conference held in Calgary, March 8th and 9th. Also gave a paper on Home Economics "I've got House Work Iiked."

Our program consisted of two vocal numbers by Mrs. L. Bigelow and Mrs. I. Allred, "Put on Your Old Gray Bonnet" and "I Want to Dream," accompanied by Mrs. R. Tollestrup.

The president asked for donations of diapers and used clothing for next month's social service program.

The door prize of a set of crocheted pot holders donated by Mrs. McBride, was won by Mrs. Anna Woolley.

After singing the "Maple Leaf Forever," meeting adjourned.

We were pleased to welcome Mrs. J. Thompson, as a new member.

A delicious lunch was served by Hostesses, Mrs. E. Christensen, Mrs. R. Haggie and Mrs. F. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Winston Shaw entertained the Mel Depews, Jack Evans and Gil Evans at a delicious chicken supper Sunday evening, after which the evening was spent in pleasant conversation.

Mrs. Hazel Ralph entertained the Friendship Club on Monday when Mrs. Vivian Haggie was invited to become a member.

Sketch Club To Hold Monthly Meetings

The Art Sketch Club held its first meeting in the Library recently with Mrs. U'renback and Mrs. Laycock from Lethbridge being there to give advice and encouragement to the ten members present. A Work Shop, with members working independently, will be held the second Wednesday of each month with Mrs. U'renback coming out on the third Wednesday to give instructions. Some work of the group is on exhibit at the Library on the present time.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Anderson returned from their enjoyable trip to the States. Most of their time was spent in Salt Lake City, but they also travelled through Arizona, California and other points of interest. They went through The Los Angeles Temple where they visited their daughter Jane, who is working in the First Security Bank in Los Angeles.

F. O. Ray Rasmussen, oldest son of Henry Rasmussen, flew to Lethbridge and Calgary from his R. C. A. F. base near London, Ontario, recently for a brief visit with friends and relatives in Raymond, Magrath and the two cities.

To Hire Full-time Caretaker for Cemetery

The Temple Hill Cemetery Board met at the Raymond Public Library with all members present, except one from Welling, to discuss plans for carrying on the beautification work at the Cemetery.

It was decided to hire a full time caretaker for the summer months and applications are being received until Saturday, April 24, by the Superintendent Mrs. Delia Woolf. Anyone making application for the job should state the wages expected.

Plans were also discussed for sponsoring the annual "Lest We Forget" Concert with the date and program to be announced at a later date.

There are over 1000 tulips peeping through at the Cemetery with both the pink and the silver leaf willows coming through the winter in good shape.

It was decided to hold a Board meeting on the first Monday of each month.

A work day is being planned with the date to be announced later.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Garner returned this week from a four-day Gas Convention in Missoula, Montana, where dealers from all over the State met to discuss mutual problems and enjoy a bit of recreation.

Mrs. Bob Brandley and girls returned this week after spending some time in Coaldale visiting her young sister while Mr. and Mrs. Gruenwald were in Salt Lake.

Heber Jones showed his slides "An American Witness for Christ" when a Study Class met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Turner on Sunday, after which refreshments were enjoyed.

Baseball Club Organized

A meeting of the R. A. A. was held in the Town Hall on Friday, April 9, with President Ray Depew presiding. The meeting was called to discuss plans for the coming baseball season and to appoint committee for the various departments.

Grant Hall was appointed to head the Grounds Committee with work to start as soon as possible on the diamonds, backstops and bleachers. Pete Vanderhilt is the chairman of the Transportation Committee and Ken Shaw heads the Finance Committee.

Roy Minion will again coach the team and will be assisted by the team Captain, Curt West was named manager with Leonard Kessler as alternate.

The R. A. A. will set aside a sum of money to back the Baseball Club in the seasons activities in case it is needed but the thought of the coach and players is that Baseball will be self-supporting. A good season is looked forward to with the possibility of a juvenile or midget team being formed here if other towns in this area are in favor of forming a league. Some thing of this nature is necessary to keep the younger players interested enough in this game to keep the player roster full.

A plan to offer membership in the R. A. A. was discussed and cards will be available in the near future. The price was set at one dollar with the membership to run from one annual meeting (in the fall) to another—those buying membership now will receive a bonus of several months. Look for the date the cards go on sale and support baseball in you: home-town this year.

"Music Charms Animals"

Trained observers report that most animals seem to dislike music. Snakes just aren't interested despite the fame of the Indian Snake Charmer. He apparently holds the cobra's attention by body movements.

Fifteen years ago only 5 per cent of men with cancer of the prostate gland survived five years. Modern treatment has increased that figure to almost 30%.

As is the case with most two-year-olds, Linnette has the blessings of a vivid, wholesome imagination.

One day Linnette's imagination was so realistic her mother could not discriminate between it and the truth.

"Linnette, are you telling the truth?" asked her mother.

Linnette wistfully replied: "Well, mother, it is MY truth."

Who is to question the reality of a small child's world of truth?

Fire walkers' feet are tough—but not that tough! The glowing coals are volcanic rocks, so porous they do not retain the heat although they appear to be white hot; the clouds of smoke are steam from heavy green leaves which protect the walker's feet.

"Quicksand Sucks Its Victims Down"
Quicksand is only a mixture of sand and water, and will support any object much easier than water will. Frantic struggles increase the chances of sinking—but its supposed suction is probably based on the noise made by pulling a person out of it.

Hobbies Good Medicine

Recreation and hobbies are good for all ages. The busy worker who sticks close to his job without having any other interests isn't doing himself any particular good. A sedentary job should be offset with sparetime recreation that will provide suitable exercise, while the worker who is on his feet all day will probably enjoy a more restful type of hobby.

Mrs. Andrew Heggie has returned home after visiting her brother Henry Dap in Pocatello for the past month.

Gukoff

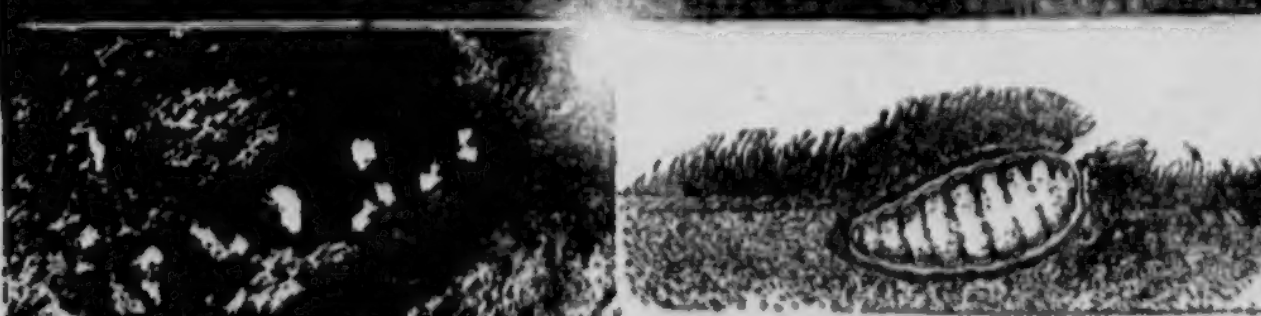

1 cup butter
1 1/2 cups sugar
7 egg yolks, beaten
Juice and grated rind of 1 lemon
Grated rind of 1 orange
1 teaspoon vanilla
3/4 cup milk
5 cups flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
7 egg whites, beaten

Cream butter and sugar together; add egg yolks, vanilla, and fruit juice and rind. Sift baking powder with flour and add alternately with milk. Fold in egg whites. Pour in greased cake form. Bake about one hour at 350 degrees F. Invert on cake rack and when cool sprinkle with powdered sugar.

Mrs. Eva Hervey was the hostess at a Stanley Party this week when fourteen friends met to enjoy the demonstration and visit, after which a lovely lunch was served.
